SCHOOL ELECTION CALLED.

At a meeting of the members of Divisional Board No. 1, of the Bourbon County Board of Education, an election was called for the Centerville precinct, to take the sense of the voters on a special school tax for one year of twenty-five cents on each $100 worth of taxable property. The fund thus to be raised will be for the purpose of building a teachers' home on the property of the consolidated Centre-Hill school, near Centerville.

WANT MORE LIGHT

Residents of Link avenue and Parrish avenue want more light shed on their respective streets, claiming the present light system to be insufficient. A petition will be presented for action at the next meeting of the Council, asking for arc lights on Link avenue. It is claimed that the small lights in use on that street do not dispel the darkness, and that large arc lamps should be placed there.

JEWISH NEW YEAR.

Next Thursday, September 25, the Jewish New Year or Yom Kippur, will be observed as a holiday by the Jewish people of Paris, who will close their stores and offices for the day. Special religious services will be held at the Maryland Avenue Temple, in Lexington, which will be attended by many of the Paris members of the faith. The new rabbi, Dr. Joseph Leiser, arrived yesterday, and will preach at the New Year services Wednesday night and Thursday morning.

DEATHS.

EMBRY.

—Mr. John P. Embry, aged about sixty, a well-known business man of Lexington, died at his home in that city Sunday noon, after an illness of three weeks. Mr. Embry is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary E. Embry, and one daughter, Mrs. Chas. V. Higgins, of Paris.

The funeral was held at the family residence yesterday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. I. J. Spencer. The burial followed in the Lexington cemetery. The pall-bearers were Wm. B. Higgins, Chas. T. Higgins, Frank N. Higgins, W. T. Smith, W. E. Applegate and Dr. D. A. Coyle.

MORRISON

—The Elizabethtown News has the following regarding the death of Mrs. Rachel Morrison, mother of Mr. James A. Morrison, of Paris, Superintendent of the L. & N.:

"Mrs. Rachel Morrison, aged 86 years, died at her home in Sonora, after only two weeks illness with malarial fever. She was a good Christian woman and had a host of friends to mourn her loss. She was a member of the Christian church. Mrs. Morrison is survived by nine children, four boys and five girls: William Morrison, Shepherdsville, Ky.; James Morrison, Paris, Ky.; Lee Morrison, of Florida; Mrs. Bell Raine, of Louisville; Mrs. Jas. Redman, Glendale; Mrs. Joe Chenault, Sonora; Mrs. Will Bramblett, Sonora, and Mrs. C. R. I. Vawter, Kansas City. Mrs. Morrison was devoted to her children.

"The funeral was held in the Christian church here at 2 o'clock Wednesday and was conducted by the Rev. G. F. Tinsley, assisted by the Rev. Annes and the Rev. J. L. Reid and the burial was in the town cemetery. Those relatives and friends attending from a distance were all her children, except her son, Lee Morrison, of Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Clay McCandless, of Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Redman, Louisville, Owsley Burks, Lebanon Junction, Mrs. Maggie Martin, Shepherdsville, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Morrison, Louisville. Besides these relatives there was quite a number of friends from Glendale, Nolin and other places in attendance. The floral designs were very large and beautiful."

The Dalion Phonograph

IT RE-ANIMATES MUSIC

It's the living touch of a Paderewski or a Kreisler that you hear—the voice of a Caruso or Galli-Curci—it's the actual swelling, stirring volume of orchestra or band—it is music alive, re-animate, because the Dalion is the Instrumentized Phonograph.

"Instrumentized"

Means that the Dalion is a Musical Instrument—Not a Machine.

The Auto-File, another exclusive Dalion feature, always finds the record you want, because it makes it absolutely impossible to misfile a record, or for records to be scattered about the room.

Come in to-day and let the Dalion talk, play and sing for itself.

It's not too early to think about that Phonograph for Christmas.

We also have the exclusive agency for the Pathe and Crescentola Phonographs.
